With BATS you can reap the benefits of test automation without the usual costs

■ Less time spent on tests

Automated tests with pre-made components which can be created and run quickly, smoothly and regularly so you can focus on creating new functionalities.

■ The right tool for your needs

One tool for test scenario creation, test execution and report generation. Transparent and simple to use. Customized to your needs.

■ Necessary skills? Already there!

Using our tool does not require a team of developers. We provide trainings for your employees so they can transit smoothly to our testing tool.

We have combined Sollers wide experience in Guidewire Suite implementation with the best technologies to create one of the finest tools for test automation on the market.

Omit mundane manual testing - automate it!
